

I wish I could get every member of the Church to go and partake
of the sacrament,
and when they took
the bread, they'd
ask themselves,

'Who am I?
What am I doing?
How am I living?
Where am I going?
What should I
be accomplishing?'

as they renew their covenants with the Lord. The minute
they'd pick up the bread, something
would happen.
